Homecoming . . . Disappointment in Defeat

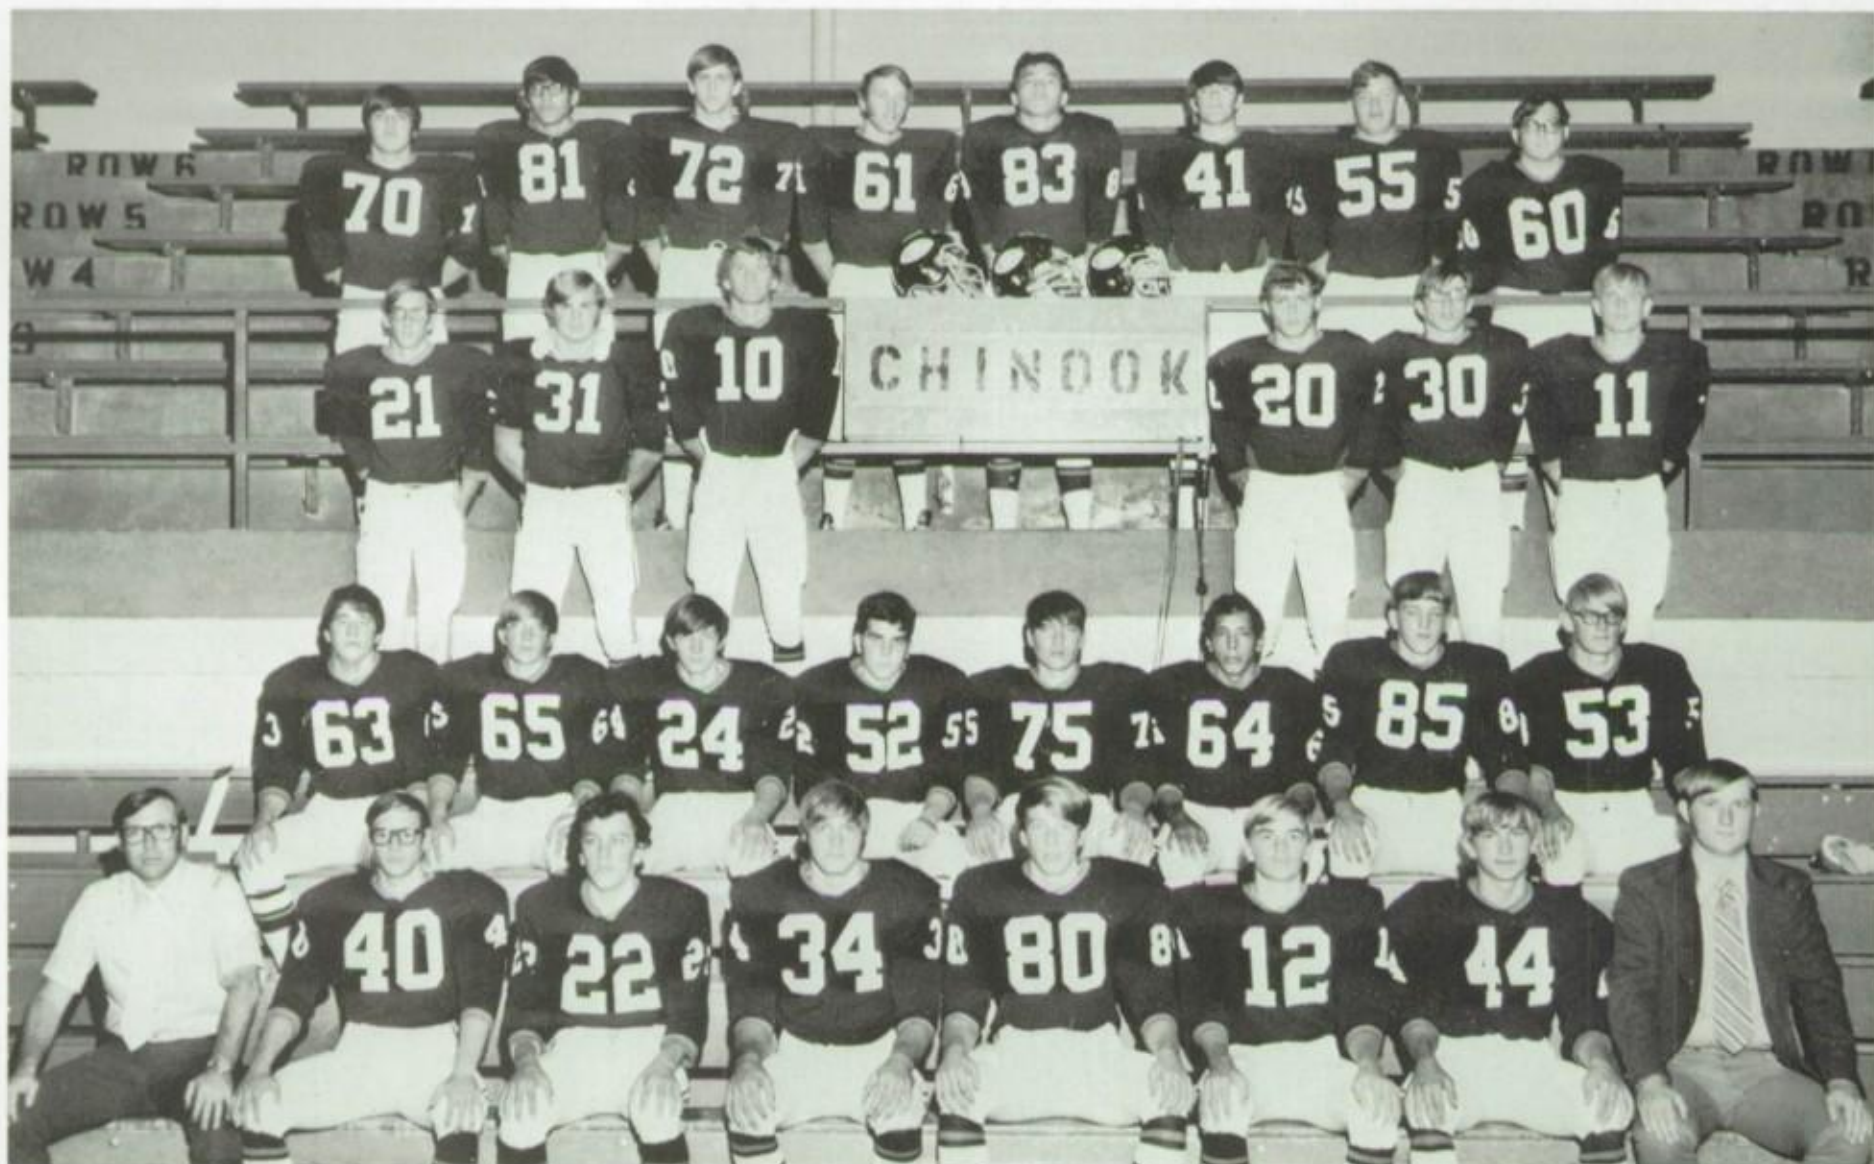

One of the highlights of the school year, Homecoming, was held on September 23, 1972. The festivities got off to a roaring start with the bonfire Thursday night.

The excitement mounted as the hushed auditorium awaited the coronation announcement. Amid cheers and tears, Sheri Conner and Rich Stuker were crowned Homecoming Queen and King. Their attendants were Marcia Rusch, Dan Jamieson, Patti Scott, Tony Seamons, Sandi Lenhardt, and Mickey Mellet. Things began to get even hotter. Kangaroo Court had to be cut short, and the chance to uncover the shady past of students was lost forever. The band led off the parade, and the floats followed. It was clearly evident whose class had worked, and the juniors easily swept the entries. The game with the Cut Bank Wolves climaxed the week. The Beeters' hots were cooled off as they went down in defeat, 14-0.

Choteau	14	21

The 1972 season was heart-breaking for the Beeters. They were only able to post a 2-6 record but were never out of any ball game.

The season started out with an inspiring victory over Harlem. The next week against Fort Benton, they came from behind to tie the game only to lose it in the final minutes. Cut Bank scored two quick TD's and hung on to win the Homecoming game.

At Browning, the Beeters massacred the Indians. Chinook led Shelby most of the way, only to lose in the final minutes. Malta snuffed out a late Beeter rally with an interception in a thriller. The champion Conrad Cowboys trailed at halftime, but came back to claim victory. In the final game, Choteau jumped off to an early lead and then held off a late Beeter rally.

Tony Seamons was elected team captain. Richard Stuker made first team all conference both ways. Tony Seamons, Grant Willman, and Chris Thomas made the second team.

Distaff Roundballers Do Their Thing

This year was the year for the comeback of girls' basketball. They began using boys' rules and the game caught on. Now, BAM, the sport is booming and even now is just in the infancy of its expected growth. Many people feel that in the next few years the girls' cage tournament will outstrip the boys in 1) enthusiasm, 2) spectator appeal, 3) sportsmanship. The coaches agreed that girls are more emotional but love to participate.

*Carnival . . .
Bingo is Back*

On November 11, CHS held its annual Carnival. The shop area was filled with people who were provided with a wide range of entertainment. Bingo returned after a year's absence and the other games of chance were enjoyed. For the variety show the band put on a skit and did a musical number. Joyce Brown and Jean Brewer of the Speech Club followed with dramatic readings. To top it off the Highliners sang. To climax the show, Sophomore candidate Joni Barber was crowned Carnival Queen 1972. Princesses were: Freshman Becky Funk, Junior Lorrie Ehleng and Senior Cindy Jamieson.

Jr. Play . . . Bachelor Needs Wife

The Junior Play, "Natilie Needs a Nightie" was a three act comedy about a bachelor who was trying to find a wife and a baby in order to keep his job.

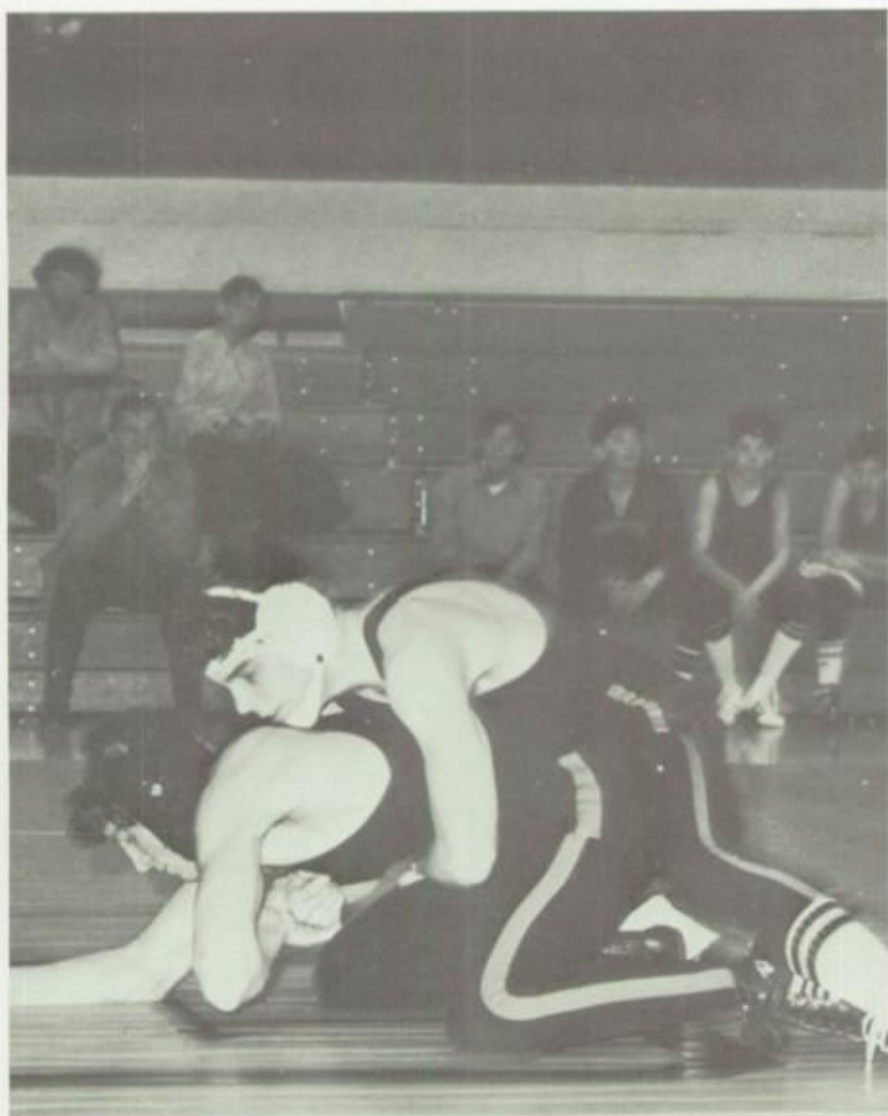

It portrayed his hectic life while he was trying to fool his boss. Everyone in his building plus a few outsiders got in the act. No one seemed to know exactly what was going on; consequently it turned out to be a real riot.

Chinook's wrestling squad was handicapped this year by the fact that they had only one senior and were forced to forfeit two and some times three weight classes.

At Divisional Tourney, Tony Peterschick placed 3rd in the 148 lb. class, Joe Raty placed 3rd in the 112 lb. class and Doug Peterschick placed fourth in the 105 lb. class. All of these boys advanced to the State Tournament, but none were able to place there.

Hoo-Ray!

This year's senior class play was titled, "Pure as the Driven Snow." It was a true melodrama with a mean villain, a pursued heroine, and a courageous hero. The hero, Alexander, and the heroine, Purity, meet and fall in love. But the villain, Mortimer, is also in love with Purity, and tries everything to stop them from another woman to locking Alexander up. However, nothing will stop Alexander from having his beloved Purity. He overcomes Mortimer and everyone lives happily ever after.

Awards Day 1973 . . .

Outstanding Students Honored

One highlight of Awards Day was the announcement of Mr. Day being chosen the Teacher of the Year.

Other awards were received by outstanding Seniors and underclassmen. Robin Simon was presented with a class ring by his classmates.

Towards the end of the ceremony, Sonya Johnson read the Senior Class Prophecy and Laurie Sheets read the Senior Class Wills. They were followed by the installation of the 1973-74 Student Body Officers.

Boys' Track . . .

Five Place at District

Letter winners for the 1973 track season are Chuck Smith, Matt Harshman, Ted Kimball, Jerry Johnson, David Tilleman, and Tim Gardipee, manager.

The letter winners qualified for the Divisional Track Meet by placing at the District Meet the week before.

At the District Meet the letter winners placed as follows: Chuck Smith - 2nd in the high jump, Matt Harshman - 4th in the broad jump and triple jump, Ted Kimball - 5th in the mile, Jerry Johnson - 5th in the 880, and David Tilleman - 3rd in the discus.

Other track boys that finished out the season but failed to place at the District track meet were: Rick Guertzgen, Dan Davies, Marlin LaTray, Jim Oberndorfer, Keith Conroy, and Winston Churchill.

Chuck Smith won the most valuable trackman award by placing the highest in an event at the District track meet, making the most practices, and by setting a school record with a jump of 5'11" in the high jump.

RELAY TEAM: Pam Taylor, Joni Barber, Candy Martens, Carol Lux.

Girls' Track . . .

Keeps on Truckin'

1973 Girls' Track did a very fine job at District Track meet. Some of the girls placed and Coach Bricker feels that they did a very fine job.

Leslie Stuker placed in the 880 yard run.

Carolyn Hofeldt placed in the one mile run.

Candy Martens will participate in the 440 yard dash and will run in the relays.

Carol Lux placed in the long jump, 100 yard dash, 220 yard run and also will run in the relays.

Pam Taylor placed in the long jump and will run with the relay team.

Carol Maetche will participate in the javelin throw.

The relay team will run in the 440 yard run.

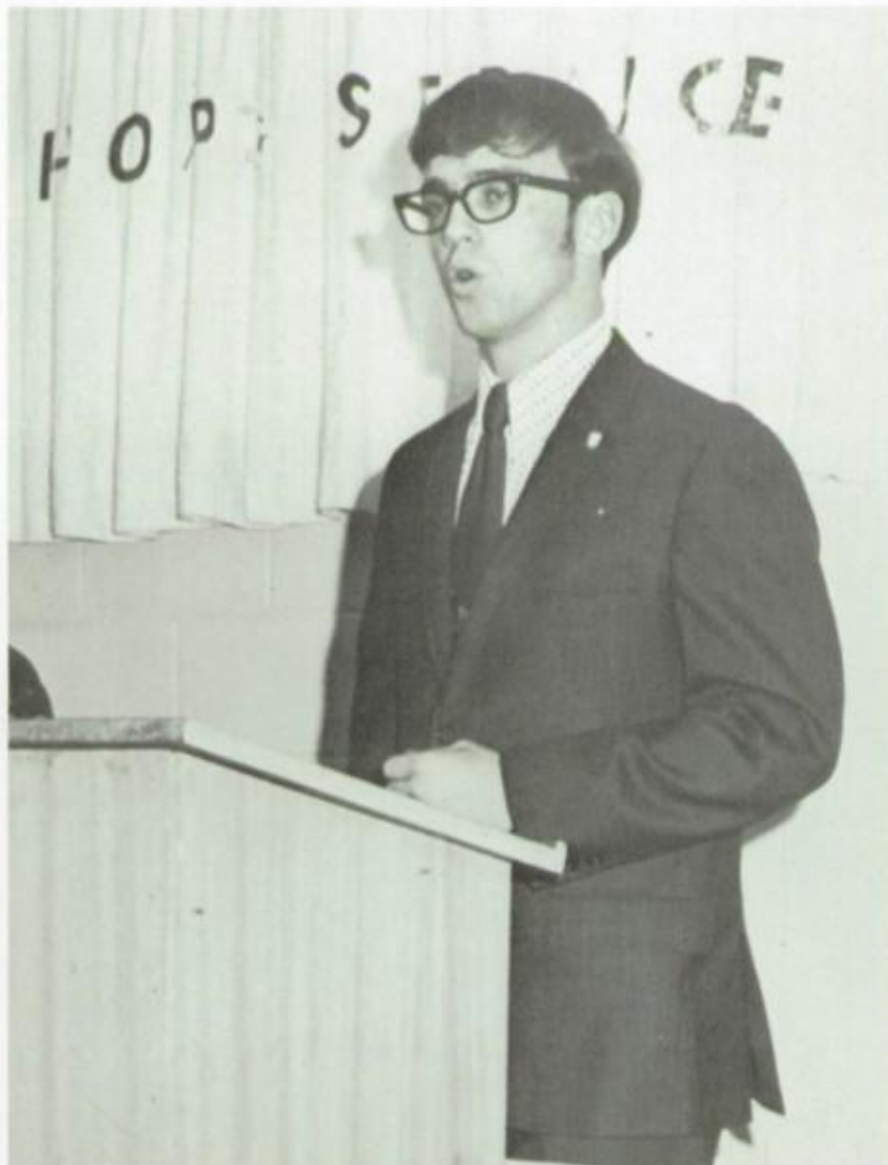

ROW ONE: Leslie Stuker, Joni Barber, Carol Lux, Patti Hiner, Candy Martens, Darilyn McCracken, Kim Smith, Carolyn Hofeldt. ROW TWO: Brenda McCracken, Pam Taylor, Tana Overcast, Carol Maetche, Vicki Larson, Marion Stuker, Sharla Bitz, Marilyn VanCampen.

Graduation . . .

Commencement exercises consist of music and speeches. Rev. Kenneth Olson, Salutatorian Anita Holman, Rev. Phillip Shull, Valedictorian Richard Varner, main speaker Dr. Lawrence Silvey, and Rev. Peter Pollock, gave speeches. Musical sounds were provided by Candy Herda and Sandra VanCampen, The Chamber Choir, and The High School Senior Ensemble.

Graduation is the end of the joy and struggle, the hard work of many years to receive the degree which is the beginning. Don Harshman, Jim Nemetz, and Ron Swenson gave each of the outgoing Seniors a diploma.

Has Successful Season

The C.H.S. Speech and Drama Club had a fairly successful year that ended in sending four students to state in Missoula.

Students participating at state were Jean Brewer and Patsy Kimball in Serious Duo Acting, and Jim Murdy and Richard Varner in Boys' Extemporaneous Speaking.

Throughout the course of the season, the team participated in nine speech and drama meets. Though other individuals inevitably placed, Richard Varner and Jim Murdy each received first place trophies to bring home.

The Chinook Chapter of the Future Farmers of America had quite a successful year. They raised money by working at a bingo booth at the Fun Night, co-sponsored the Sweetheart Ball with the FHA, and participated in many local, state and national activities.

Chinook faired very well at District Convention coming in second overall. Grant Willman was selected as a State Farmer, Marion Stuker was selected as District Public Speaking Champ, Hugh Ross was District Greenhand, Ed Paulsen was high individual in Grain and Range judging, and all of the judging teams did very well.

At State Convention, Grant was elected Fourth Vice-President of the state organization.

Chinook also sent two delegates to National Convention. This year Grant Willman and Ed Paulsen were selected.

Board of Trustees . . .

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the students of Chinook High School for the commendable behavior they have displayed during the time I have been here. While there have been a few rough spots, overall this student body has been outstanding in its attitude and behavior.

Thank you,
Mr. Conroy

The administration of Chinook High School extends our best wishes to the students and the graduating class of 1973. It is through your efforts, concern and cooperation that has made the past school year such a success.

Mr. Smith
